The Powhatan Pharmacy, Inc Nominated for RadioShack's 2007 National Award of Excellence

Fort Worth, Texas - March 21, 2008 - RadioShack's Franchise Division announces The Powhatan Pharmacy, Inc, a RadioShack Franchise store owned and operated by James Gregg in Powhatan, VA, has been nominated for RadioShack's 2007 National Award of Excellence for being one of the top RadioShack Franchise Stores in the country.

Each year, RadioShack's District Managers nominate their District's top store for RadioShack's most prestigious award, The National Award of Excellence. Nominees are selected from each District nationwide for their consistent sales performance, outstanding participation in the RadioShack Franchise program, and commendable demonstration of RadioShack's values in their local community. Only two National Award Winners are chosen from this exclusive group of District award nominees.

"Nomination for the National Award of Excellence is recognition of James Gregg's ambition to be the best," said Paul Rickels, Vice President of RadioShack's Franchise Division. "This year 29 RadioShack Franchise stores from among our 1,450 Franchise stores nationally received this recognition. It is high praise for their commitment to represent the RadioShack brand in their community by providing the assortment and environment for a great customer experience."
